There exists a document called the General Code of Conduct for all Members and Participants ("CoC"). It is intended to guide the behaviour of members so that all can join in, and enjoy, the activities of the Club. The undersigned acknowledges receipt of a copy of the CoC and hereby agrees to be guided by it.

Please take note that the Club will not accept any liability for personal injury arising out of use of the Club premises or facilities, the use of any boats or equipment rented from, or otherwise provided by, the Club, or during participation in any event organized by the Club, whether sustained by members, their guests or visitors, or caused by the said members, guests or visitors, whether or not such damage or injury could have been attributed to, or was occasioned by, the neglect, default or negligence of any of the Officers, Committee, agents, employees, members or servants of the Club.

Boat owners accept all risks associated with the storage on the premises of their boats and/or trailers.

CISC does not provide 24 hours Security Guard Services.

Use of the slipway and docks is for Members only.

Sailboats have launching and docking privileges over powerboats.

Due to limited length of slipway, launching of powerboats longer than 20' LOA are allowed only with the express permission of one of the CISC Coaches, the Club Manager or any other experienced Officer of the Club in attendance.

Declarations:-

I wish to join the Cayman Islands Sailing Club with all of the privileges attached thereto.

I promise to be guided by the Club's Code of Conduct, its Articles of Association and By-Laws.

I promise to promptly pay my annual Membership Fees as well as any other charges I make to my account from time to time for the products and services I, or my family, receive from the Club.

If I wish to resign my membership for any reason, I promise to do so in writing and before my current paid up year of membership expires on the last day of each year, otherwise I agree to pay my automatically renewed membership fee.
